This is a rain or shine event. All spaces are 10'x10'. The non-refundable fee is for the space only; vendors are responsible for their own displays. Set up begins at 7 a.m. , break down after 4 p.m. Artisans and craftsmen must make the work that they sell. This is a juried show. The first jury session will take place in early July. Subsequent jury sessions will occur throughout the summer.

All applicants will be juried. This also applies to returning applicants.

All applicants must include photos of the products they wish to sell. Only completed applications with fee and photos included will be juried. Only those items listed on the application and approved by the Festival Committee will be allowed at your display. No political, religious, or controversial materials are allowed. Please enclose a SASE if you wish to receive an acceptance letter or your photos returned. Please describe your range of products, all items to be displayed and/or sold:
