- Inactive Personal Property Account write-offs.

There are 6 accounts that are inactive that are on our books and date back to 2006 for various reasons. They have outstanding balances and are deemed uncollectable. Total amount of uncollectable money is approximately $5300.00. John Olivieri entertained a motion to approve the write off of 6 inactive accounts. John LeBlanc made that motion, David Lamoureux seconded, all in favor, no further discussion. J. Olivieri – aye, D. Lamoureux – aye and J. LeBlanc – aye. Motion carries
- FY2023 Final Update on Certification.

Certification process went well, and received approval from the state for our tax rate of $11.15. Even though the tax classification hearing was 9 days later than the previous year, our tax bill file was created 6 days earlier. So, we actually came in ahead of schedule

-FY2024 Budget.

The Assessors budget is managed by the Board of Assessors, but most departments have staff that are responsible for that. John Olivieri attended a pre-budget meeting with other department head members conducted by the Town Administrator and any information passed along to David Golden. David Golden proposed the FY2024 budget to the Board of Assessors.
